

Sufi Shrines in Uyghur China:

A Conversation with photographer and video artist

Lisa Ross '87

Monday, October 7

5:30 pm

Donnelley Theatre,
Heimbold

New York based artist and SLC alumna Lisa Ross '87 has spent 10 years capturing sacred landscapes in and around northwestern China's Taklamakan Desert, often in the company of a Uyghur folklorist and an historian of Central Asia. Her photographic pilgrimage to these sites has been shown in exhibitions at the Rubin Museum of Art; the University of California, Berkeley; and Les Rencontres d'Arles, in France; and in her recent book Living Shrines of Uyghur China.

FUNDING FOR THIS TALK HAS BEEN GENEROUSLY PROVIDED BY HARLEQUIN ADAIR
DAMMANN, CHAIR FOR ISLAMIC STUDIES

